THE LAWYERS

The satisfaction and the success of our clients are the most important benchmark for our work. We focus on tailor-made concepts and individual solutions. De Micco & Friends employs lawyers, auditors, investment bankers and rest estate experts who work hand in hand. This offers you concentrated know-how for almost all types of business and legal cases.

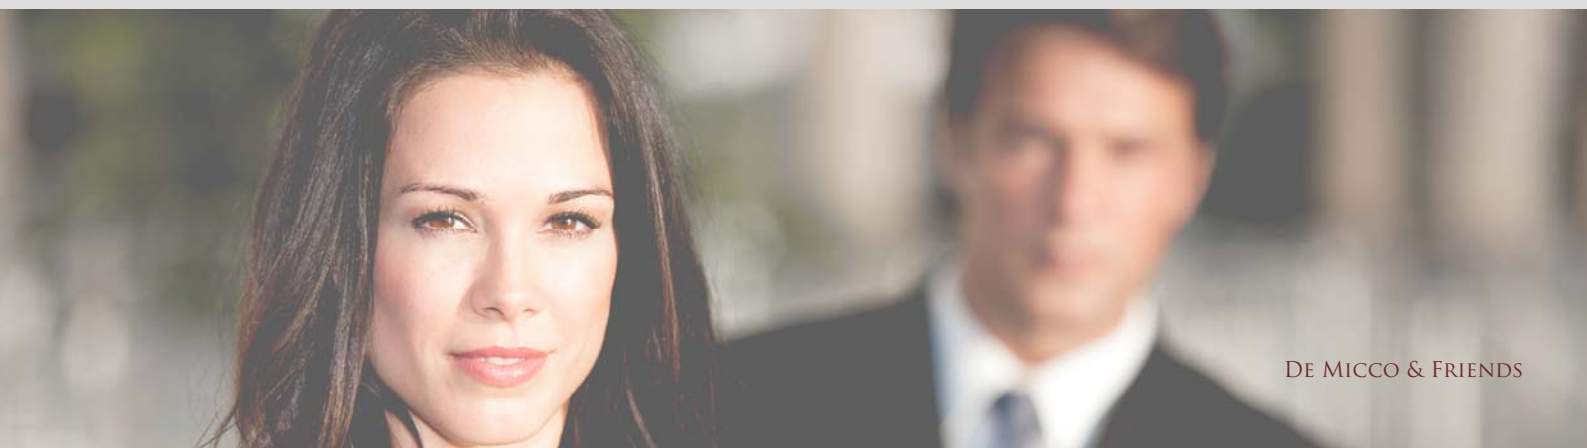

THE PARTNERS AND SENIOR PARTNERS

Integrity and dedication, experience and ambition: we require the most from each of the lawyers of our group. The partners and senior partners of D&F LAWYERS are experienced lawyers with different areas of expertise. The legal advisors and notaries are lawyers with excellent expertise. Most of the partners have many years of professional experience.

By combining our proximity to the corporate world and our excellent legal expertise, De Micco & Friends LAWYERS can get done more for you – in all industries and all areas of the law, both in the region and internationally.

De Micco & Friends have offices and partners in several countries. The regional offices always consist of dynamic and flexible teams. You as the client thus enjoy the competence of an international corporation, but also a high degree of personal attention – and for much better prices than with comparable large law firms.

PRINCIPLES OF ADVICE

Whatever your focus is or which industry you work in, the lawyers of the full-service law firm De Micco & Friends Lawyers advise you across the whole range of business law. From employment law to competition law, from clearly defined local challenges to complicated transnational projects, you can be sure that the right experts will advise you on the correct answers and solutions regarding your transactions and legal questions.

YOUR ADVANTAGES

Trust needs to be earned

Legal advice is a matter of trust. We don't simply ask our clients to trust in the quality of the service and the integrity of the staff and the partners. But we invite you to gain this trust through successfully implemented projects and transactions. Test us!

We are fully aware that you as the client have to be able to rely on your lawyers' advice and competence at all times. Our partners' actions are guided by this: we ensure the quality of our service through regular quality reviews and the four-eyes principle which applies to all partners and senior partners.

Entrepreneurial approach by conviction

Our lawyers always advise you pro-actively. We respond flexibly and fast. Naturally, we don't only point out risks, but we offer clear instructions on how to act.

Our advice is tailored to your individual goals and your definitions of success. You may always expect that our lawyers know and understand your business.

Internationality and stability

Thanks to the interdisciplinary cooperation with the international offices of De Micco & Friends we have a wealth of experience both at the national and the international level.

Especially if your business spans more than one country, you will find the right partner in us. You will benefit from the local presence and our international connections.

The personal contact with our clients is very important to us. Short and direct means of communication can be decisive for a quick and efficient implementation of a project. In order to ensure this, a personal contact will always be available to you.
